

<h2>Local History Donation Acquisition Agreement</h2>

I _____ (hereinafter referred to as the Donor), hereby give, donate, and convey to the Niagara Falls Public Library (NFPL) for deposit in the Local History Collection, as a gift, papers and other historical materials (hereinafter referred to as materials) as described below. I hereby declare that I have clear title to these materials and I am authorized to gift them as I please.

Description and condition of donated materials:

The Donor hereby gives and assigns to the Niagara Falls Public Library all property and copyrights, title, patents, trademarks and interest therein. It is understood and agreed by and between the Donor and the Niagara Falls Public Library that the gift will be cared for in a manner that will, in the judgment of the staff of the Local History Department, best provide for its physical preservation and at the same time make it most readily available to researchers. The material will be available for research, display, educational and publication purposes, subject to standard archival practices.

In the event that portions of such materials are not appropriate to the Niagara Falls Public Library Local History Collections Management Policy, the Local History Department has the right to determine their proper disposition.

In the event that the Donor or donating organization may from time to time hereafter, give, donate, and convey to the Niagara Falls Public Library for deposit in the Local History Collection additional papers and other historical materials, title shall pass to the Niagara Falls Public Library upon their delivery and this instrument shall be applicable to all additional materials.
